Sorority Presents Language Master

A Language Master has been presented to the Speech and Hearing Department by the Alpha Psi Chapter of Psi Iota Xi, a national philanthropic society.

The Language Master is very convenient because it may be used by the student. It has instant playback without having to use any controls. This helps the student by letting him hear the correct speech pattern and compare it to his own.

MUSIC INSTRUCTOR PLACES THIRD IN NATIONAL ASSOCIATION

Mr. Dan McDaniel placed third in the graduate division of the Southern Regional Association of the NATS (National Association of Teachers of Singing) last week end.

The Wouthern Regional was composed of four States, Tennessee, Georgia, Kentucky, and Alabama.

MR. BARRY CHATHAM, speech and hearing therapist, is shown using the new Language Master given to the Speech and Hearing Department by Alpha Psi Chapter of Psi Iota Xi.

GOD OFFERS to every mind its choice between truth and repose.

To Smoke Or Not To Smoke?

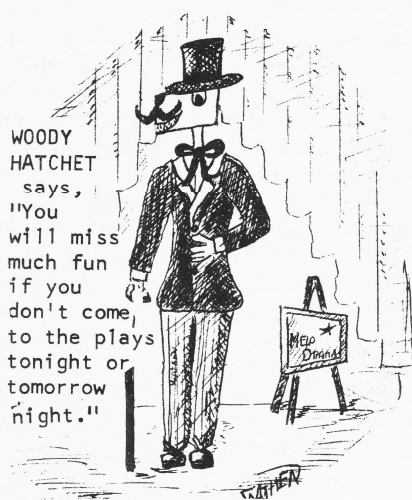

Do you know that cigarette smoking kills people, makes others lung cripples, and gives others a share of illness and loss of work days.

Lung cancer is the leading cause of cancer deaths in the United States today. Chances of cigarette smokers dying of lung cancer rise the more they smoke.

Cigarette smoking does not put a person in the "in" crowd! Are you really more popular because you smoke? So you need cigarettes as a status symbol or a social crutch?

Once a person has stopped smoking he will feel and look better, food will taste better, cigarette breath will disappear, he will save money, and most important, lungs, heart, stomach, nose, and throat will appreciate the kindness!

When something is important, a person just does not throw that something away. Life and health are the greatest gifts one can possess. Is it really too much to ask someone to take care of these gifts? The answer is in a person's own hands.

Name Origins Solved

Do you ever wonder how some of the nations top soul and rock groups have acquired their names? It might have happened something like this.

The 5th Dimensions think that their music is out of this world. The Strawberry Alarm Clock might have come into being when the leader bounced his alarm clock off the wall into a bowl of strawberries.

Canned Heat, a group of great success, might have found identity after playing an engagement in the boiler room of downtown Burbank's City Jail. The Iron Butterfly, a group of outstanding accomplishment, got their name purely by an act of fate. One of the members happened to be riding his motorcycle down the freeway at approximately 100 miles an hour when this moth like creature struck him in the forehead. Need I say more?

Maybe you can figure out how they titled their songs. This is too much for the reporter to tackle.

I CHATTER, chatter as I flow
 to join the brimming river,

For men may come and men
 may go,
 But I go on forever.

If A Tornado Strikes

Of all winds that sweep this planet's surface, tornadoes are the most violent. Their time on earth is short, and their destructive paths are small. But these short-lived, local storms through populated areas leave a path of terrible destruction.

In seconds, a tornado can change a thriving street into shambles, and hope into despair.

Tornadoes occur in many parts of the world and in all 50 states. No area is more susceptible to their formation, than the continental plains of North America, and no season is free from them.

Normally, the number of tornadoes is at its lowest in the United States during December and January, and highest in May. Months of greatest total frequency are April, May, and June.

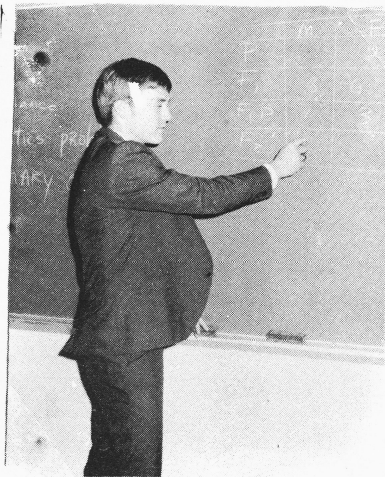

No community is entirely free from the threat of tornadoes so everyone should be acquainted with the guidelines.

IN office buildings, stand in an interior hallway on a lower floor, preferably the basement. In factories, move quickly to the section of the plant offering greatest protection according to advance plans. In homes, seek shelter under a sturdy workbench or heavy table, preferably in the basement. If there is no basement, take cover under heavy furniture in the center part of the house. Keep some windows open, but stay away from them!

In school, go into an interior hallway on the lowest floor. Avoid auditoriums and gymnasiums. In open country, move away from the tornadoes path at a right angle. Lie flat in the nearest depression such as a ditch or ravine.

Radio and television stations will broadcast the latest tornado advisory information. Call the weather bureau only to report a tornado.

Student Teachers Here For Last Weeks

"You have a very nice school and nice students," commented Mr. Charles Harris, student teacher for Mr. Roy Wachter.

Mr. Harris is a 1965 graduate of Springs Valley High School and is currently a student of Indiana University where he is majoring in biology and minoring in physical education.

After his graduation this June, Mr. Harris plans to accept one of the many teaching opportunities offered to him.

Library—

Duty Of Each

"I visit the lockers quite regularly," remarked Miss Mary Knowles, librarian, "just to locate my library." Miss Knowles does not have to go to this much trouble to locate her books, but collecting books is a big problem.

Students should help out by returning all books when due. Fines should be paid promptly for all overdue books.

If students realize that this is their obligation, the school library would run more smoothly.

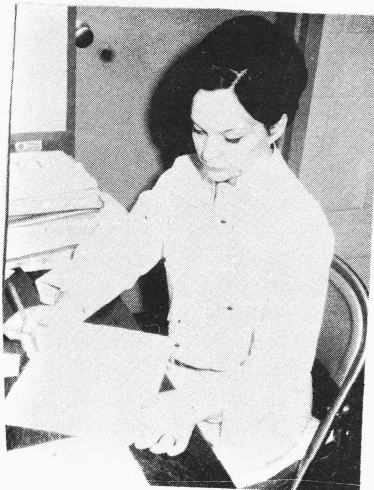

LIBERTY, when it begins to take root, is a plant of rapid growth.

MISS KAREN SMITH, student teacher from I.U., is doing her practice teaching with Miss Hilbert until the end of school.

She is a physical education major and has a minor in business education.

She plans to teach school after receiving her degree. She is very active in sports and athletics.

Welding Class

GLEN SPAULDING, Rick Seal, and Jim Risch are demonstrating the new welder in Mr. Charles Noble's third period welding class.

Mr. Dennis Callahan student from Indiana University, is currently doing his student teaching at WHS. Mr. Callahan is a social studies major and is doing his practice teaching in history and economics under Mr. Kenneth Gray and Mr. Gerald Butcher.

When asked his opinion of the school he commented, "It's great! Your school has some of the facilities that most school of this size lack." He went on to cite examples such as: the AV department, the reading program, and foreign language laboratory.

Mr. Callahan is 26 years old, married, and has one daughter. While in the Air Force, he served as a military policeman. He has a thorough knowledge of karate and taught the art at Vincennes University. He has proved his abilities in karate by capturing the 1965 Korean Karate Championship and the 1968 National Korean Karate Championship.

Students of the metal shop classes are using the new oxy-acetylene welders, just recently received.

Different facets of welding will be covered over the course of instruction, including the fusion weld, braze in the horizontal and vertical position, cut steel with cutting torch, and practice hard-facing.

Gerbil Family Increases

Congratulations go to Mrs. Gerbil, who just completed a self delivery of baby gerbils. Mrs. Gerbil has a high production rate of four gerbils.

Salt was placed in the cage after the delivery because at times Mrs. Gerbil tends to be cannibalistic. If it were not for the salt substitute, she would tend to get hungry at times.

On receiving the exciting news of the births, Mr. Gerbil did two cartwheels, three flips, and counteracted an outstanding hand stand! Having no cigars, Mr. Gerbil completed the customary ceremony by offering sunflower seeds and milk.

Attending physician Dr. D. Day, and babies are in excellent condition; however Dr. Day is still suffering from shaky knees!

EULOGIES DELIVERED BY SPEECH STUDENTS

Eulogies have been major projects for students of Mrs. Leila Pate's speech class. A eulogy is a tribute to a deceased person showing praise for his accomplishments while living.

Types of eulogies were biographical and topical.

A topical eulogy is a speech in which a student takes one phase of a person's life and praises it.

A speech in which one relates a person's life chronologically and praises it is known as the biographical eulogy.

Eulogies have ranged from Robert Browning to Jim Clark to Dwight Eisenhower.

Mexican Publications Add Interest

Miss Sylvia Orr's advanced Spanish classes are now taking a Mexico City newspaper and the Mexican Life magazine, both written in Spanish. They are reading the comics, advertisements for job employment, and other interesting articles.

Many ads for employment are in English which shows that employees are needed who can speak both Spanish and English. Ads are included from American companies, especially from Minnesota and Michigan.

Students are also making their own recordings of selections from Spanish literature in order to improve their fluency and pronunciation. They have a choice of working in a group, pairs or as an individual. They also have a choice of material; oral, reading listening comprehension, reading, and vocabulary.

The entire class works together on routine grammar and verb construction.

Miss Orr says this way of teaching has many advantages. A student has an opportunity to become excellent in all areas. Most students appreciate the freedom of choice.
